Beloved Catholic Prayers

Sign of the Cross

✠ In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Our Father

Our Father, Who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come. Thy Will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Hail Mary

Hail Mary, Full of Grace, The Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now, and at the hour of our death.
Amen.

Glory Be

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Prayer to Guardian Angel

Angel of God, my guardian dear, To whom God's love commits me here,
Ever this day (or night), be at my side, To light and guard, Rule and guide.
Amen.

Grace Before Meals

(Make the Sign of the Cross)

Bless Us, O Lord, and these Thy gifts which we are about to receive from Thy bounty, through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Family Evening Prayer

Sign of the Cross

✠ In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Angelus

V. The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary,
R. And she conceived of the Holy Spirit.

Hail Mary, etc...

V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord.
R. Be it done unto me according to Your Word.

Hail Mary, etc...

V. And the Word was made flesh,
R. And dwelt among us.

Hail Mary, etc...

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.
R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray

Pour forth, we beseech You, O Lord,
Your Grace into our hearts;
that as we have known the incarnation of Christ,
your Son by the message of an angel,
so by His passion and cross
we may be brought to the glory of His Resurrection.
Through the same Christ, our Lord.

Amen.

Glory be ...

Prayer to Holy Spirit

Come Holy Spirit, and fill the hearts of your faithful, and enkindle in them the fire of Your Divine Love. Send forth Your Spirit and they shall be created, and You shall renew the face of the earth. Oh God, Who has taught the hearts of the faithful by the light of your Holy Spirit, Grant, that by the gift of the same Spirit we may be always truly wise and ever rejoice in His consolation. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

From Holy Wednesday evening to Easter Sunday

Christ was made for us obedient unto death, even death on the cross. The Lord raised Him from the dead and gave him the name above all other names.

1. Our Father... Let us Pray (Oremus)

We beseech you, Oh Lord, mercifully look down upon this family for whom our Lord Jesus Christ delivered Himself freely into the hands of His enemies and suffered the torments of death upon the cross, who lives and reigns for all eternity. Amen.

From Holy Saturday till Trinity Sunday

Queen of heaven, rejoice	... Alleluia
Because of whom you merited to bear	... Alleluia
He has risen as He said,	... Alleluia
Pray for us to God,	... Alleluia
Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary,	... Alleluia
For, the Lord is risen indeed	... Alleluia

Let us Pray (Oremus)

O God, you gave joy to the world, through the resurrection of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. Grant, that we may obtain through His virgin mother Mary, the joys of everlasting life, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Glory be ...

Rosary – Family Prayer

Sign of the Cross.

O God come to my aid;

O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory be ...

Lord Jesus, we are praying this Rosary as our family prayer. Send upon us your power to pray devoutly and attentively. Blessed Virgin Mary, our mother intercede for us to your beloved son Jesus Christ. We present this prayer for all the needs of our family, for all those who have asked our prayers, and all those who need our prayers most.

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth;
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son Our Lord,

Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended into Hell; the third day He rose again from the dead;

He ascended into Heaven, and sits at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting. Amen.

For the increase of Faith, Hope, and Charity

1 Our Father

3 Hail Mary ... 1 for increase in Faith/1 for Hope/1 for Charity

Glory be ...

Decades of the Rosary: Each decade of the Rosary is devoted to a particular event in the life of Jesus or of the Virgin Mary. For the purposes of the Rosary, these are called mysteries. The focus is always on Jesus. But since the Virgin Mary, as the Mother of Jesus, had (and continues to have) a special relationship with Christ, the Rosary is designed to help us contemplate Christ and His love for humanity through His Mother -- and Our Mother -- on whom He has lavished so much love.

After each Mystery – 1 Our Father, 10 Hail Mary's
Glory Be...

Fatima Prayer - Oh My Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fire of hell; lead all souls to heaven, especially those in most need of Thy mercy.

Mary, Queen of peace, pray for us.

All Four Mysteries (Joyful, Sorrowful, Glorious, Luminous) listed below

(Resource: <https://dynamiccatholic.com/> - Dynamic Catholic)

The Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary

(Mondays, Saturdays, Advent Sundays, & Sundays from Epiphany until Lent)

God wants us to have complete joy. He created us for it. Jesus came so we could be immersed in complete joy: "I have told you this so that my joy might be in you and your joy might be complete" (John 15:11). The Joyful Mysteries celebrate when joy entered the world, when God entered into the mess of the world because of his incredible love for us.

The First Joyful Mystery:

The Annunciation. This is Mary's moment, the moment when her "yes" changed the world. Imagine the monumental courage that would have required. Think about it. An angel appeared to Mary, and told her she would be the mother of the savior, the mother of God. She was a teenager, only a child. And what the angel said made no earthly sense. What was Mary thinking? What would have happened if she had said no?

The Second Joyful Mystery: The Visitation. God turned Mary's world upside down. What did Mary do? She rushed off to serve her cousin, Elizabeth, who was pregnant in her old age. It was Mary's first reaction. Too often our first reaction is one of selfishness: "I don't feel like it," "I'll do it later," "Can't someone else take care of it?" But Mary had an instinct to serve, an entrenched humility.

The Third Joyful Mystery: The Birth of Jesus. The world is a mess: war, poverty, corruption, greed, selfishness, violence, abuse, injustice. The face of evil torments ordinary people every day, and yet God chose to put himself in the middle of our mess. The humility of God is incredible. He places himself right in the middle of our mess as the solution to it. We don't deserve it. We have no claim to it. God gives us a new beginning, a fresh start, freely and without merit.

The Fourth Joyful Mystery: The Presentation. Mary presented Jesus at the temple in Jerusalem, dedicating him to God according to the Jewish custom. As she did so, a man named Simeon said something astounding, "Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace, according to your word; for my eyes have seen your salvation" (Luke 2:29-30). Have you ever waited for something with great anticipation? Did you wait patiently? What are you waiting for in your life right now? Simeon had waited. He had waited patiently, and prayed patiently for the savior. Now, he took baby Jesus in his arms. Imagine the emotion as he pulled the child to his chest. His face filled with a strange combination of joy and anguish. Joy for the present, anguish for the future he knows the child will face.

The Fifth Joyful Mystery: The Finding of Jesus in the Temple. On their way home from celebrating the Passover in Jerusalem, Mary and Joseph actually lost Jesus. God, the Creator of the universe, had entrusted Jesus the Messiah to Mary and Joseph's care—and they lost him. Imagine what they were thinking and how they were feeling: grief, torment, distress, anguish, torture. So often we lose Jesus in our own lives and don't even notice.

The Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary

(Tuesdays and Fridays; daily from Ash Wednesday until Easter Sunday)

For more than 2,000 years, the heroes, champions, and saints of Christianity have been meditating on the passion and death of Jesus Christ. Perhaps it is time we all spent a little time exploring the genius of the cross. The world changed at three o'clock on that Friday afternoon when Jesus laid down his life for us. The Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary meditate on key moments in the passion and death of Jesus.

The First Sorrowful Mystery: The Agony in the Garden. Stay awake. Jesus said it three times. But his disciples could not. They let him down. Imagine how alone he felt that night in the garden. Have you ever been in agony—physical, spiritual, emotional, psychological? Multiply that by infinity and take it to the depths of eternity, and you may get a small glimpse of what Jesus was experiencing that night in the Garden of Gethsemane.

The Second Sorrowful Mystery: The Scourging at the Pillar. One sentence. “Then Pilate took Jesus and had him flogged” (John 19:1). Eight words. But it would have been enough to kill most people. The flesh on his back torn in a hundred places, blood dripping from each, small pieces of his divine body that had been ripped off scattered on the ground—the body of Christ. Still, this was almost nothing compared to what he was to go through.

The Third Sorrowful Mystery: The Crowning with Thorns. They crowned him with thorns and used a stick to smack the crown down on his head driving the thorns deep into his skull. He felt it all. He accepted it all. He embraced it all. It seems we will do anything to avoid pain and suffering today. But not Jesus, he embraced every experience of pain and suffering. He allowed each thorn, each taunt to strengthen his resolve to do what was before him.

The Fourth Sorrowful Mystery: The Carrying of the Cross. As Jesus carried his cross, it was a wonder how he was even still alive. He was beaten by the guards as he struggled to carry the cross. He collapsed three times, magnifying his pain. The guards knew he would not make it to Calvary, so they forced Simon of Cyrene to help Jesus so he would not die along the way.

The Fifth Sorrowful Mystery: The Crucifixion. There is a time and place for everything in God’s plan, and every debt in the universe needs to be settled eventually. This was the day, Calvary was the place, two thousand years ago was the time, that God decided to settle our debts.

The Glorious Mysteries of the Rosary

(Wednesdays and Sundays – from Easter to Advent)

In the Glorious Mysteries, we not only see the beautiful glory of God, but we see the incredible dream that God has for each one of us. He wants us to live lives of incredible joy and purpose, and ultimately live with him for eternity.

The First Glorious Mystery: The Resurrection. It must have been astonishing Sunday morning. The city would have been drowning in gossip and emotion. But few, if any, would have recognized that this was the main event of human history. Jesus rose from the dead. On that day there was no doubt many who ignored it, and many others who doubted it, rejected it, were skeptical or cynical. These people have existed in every age and exist today, but you see them wandering through their lives confused. It is simply impossible to make sense of life and history without acknowledging the Resurrection.

The Second Glorious Mystery: The Ascension. After spending 40 days with his disciples, Jesus ascended body and soul into heaven. Jesus did exactly what he said he would do. He was a man of his word. Why do we ignore and doubt his words so often? He said he would return one day. Do you ever think about it? Imagine if he came today. Are you ready? Would you recognize him?

The Third Glorious Mystery: The Descent of the Holy Spirit. The disciples were afraid. Most of us have probably never experienced fear like the fear they were gripped with. They were afraid they would be killed for being Jesus' followers. But if they weren't killed, what were they to do, now that Jesus was gone? Then the Holy Spirit descended upon them and transformed them. Their fear was banished and they were filled with courage. This is the greatest before-and-after sequence the world has ever seen.

The Fourth Glorious Mystery: The Assumption. Mary's radical humility is an encyclopedia of lessons about the inner life. Imagine how rich her inner life must have been. Imagine what it was like for the first Christians to seek her counsel and guidance. Then at the end of her life, Mary was taken body and soul into heaven. Her reward for a life lived entirely for God. What's keeping you from just giving everything to God?

The Fifth Glorious Mystery: The Coronation of Mary as Queen of Heaven and Earth. Mary's courage, fidelity, and humility greatly pleased the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit. They crowned her queen of heaven. There is no greater title on earth than "Mother of God"—and no greater creature than Mary has ever existed. This Mary, your spiritual mother and the Queen of heaven, is the most celebrated women on earth and in heaven. Who is greater than Mary? None but God.

The Luminous Mysteries of the Rosary (Thursdays)

The presence of Jesus is powerful. When he was walking the earth his presence demanded a response. Especially those moments that revealed his divinity. The Luminous Mysteries, often referred to as the Mysteries of Light, capture some incredible moments filled with Jesus' divinity. They proclaim: "This is the chosen one, the one you have been waiting upon for so very long, this is the Messiah, this is the Son of God!" How will you respond?

The First Luminous Mystery: The Baptism of Jesus in the River Jordan. Jesus, the Son of God, went to John the Baptist to be baptized. John felt unworthy even to untie Jesus' sandals, but Jesus stood in line with sinners and presented himself to John to be baptized. At that moment, as Jesus stood in the water, the heavens opened and God the Father said, "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased" (Matthew 3:13-17).

The Second Luminous Mystery: The Wedding Feast at Cana. This is it. Jesus' first public miracle. And it takes place rather quietly at a wedding. When the bride and groom ran out of wine, Mary took their need to Jesus. And he turned water into wine, a wine that was far better than the wine they had already served, and more wine than they could ever drink. The Our God is a God of abundance. Just as Jesus abundantly supplied more wine when it was in short supply at the wedding in Cana, he wants to provide abundantly for whatever is in short supply in our lives today.

The Third Luminous Mystery: The Proclamation of the Kingdom. When Jesus spoke about the kingdom, he perplexed people. They had a certain image of God and his ways, and Jesus turned them upside down and inside out. In our own ways, we too have images of God and ways of thinking about how God does things that he wants to turn upside down—which as it turns out will be right side up.

The Fourth Luminous Mystery: The Transfiguration. Jesus wants to show us what is possible. Too often our vision is too earthbound. He wants to open our hearts and minds to all that is possible far beyond our limited thinking. The disciples, like you and I, could only see Jesus in a very limited way because of their limits. Jesus took Peter, John, and James up on the mountain so God the Father could open their spiritual eyes wider than ever before and see Jesus in all his glory.

The Fifth Luminous Mystery: The Institution of the Eucharist. Do you know what happened at the Last Supper? Most of us would say yes, and then recite the facts and mechanics of that historic experience. But really, what we don't know about the Last Supper dwarfs what we do know. What we don't know about God makes what we do know about him look like a grain of sand in the Sahara desert.

Prayer before Litany:

St Michael the Archangel, St Gabrielle, St Raphael, the Holy Messengers of God. St Joseph the Great, Saint Peter, Saint Paul, and Saint John, the disciples of Our Lord and Our Beloved Father Saint Thomas. We humbly pray that though we are poor sinners, the prayers you recited onto us, add up to your hymns so that we may offer them up to the foot of the Holy Mother of God. Lord have Mercy...

Hail Holy Queen

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy, hail, our life, our sweetness, and our hope.

To you we cry, poor banished children of Eve;
To you, do we send up our sighs,
mourning and weeping in this valley of tears.
Turn, then, most gracious advocate,
your eyes of mercy toward us;
lead us home at last
and show us the blessed fruit of your womb, Jesus:
O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

Pray for us O Holy Mother of God!
That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray!

O God! By the life, death, and resurrection of your only begotten Son Jesus Christ you have purchased for us the rewards of eternal life. Grant, we beseech you, while meditating on these mysteries of the most holy rosary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me.
Amen.

1 Our Father... Hail Mary ... Glory Be...

The Evening Prayer

O my God, at the end of this day, I thank you with all my heart for all the graces I have received from you. I am sorry that I have not made a better use of them. I am sorry for all the sins I have committed against you. Forgive me, O my God, and graciously protect me this night. Blessed Virgin Mary, my dear mother, take me under your protection. St Joseph, my dear Guardian Angel, and all you saints of God, pray for me.
Amen.

Prayer to St Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Prayer before Mass (Qurbana)

O Jesus! I believe that you are the Christ the Son of the living God, who came on earth to save humanity from sin. I believe that in receiving the Holy Eucharist I shall receive your body and blood. I believe this firmly because you have said it.

Memorare to St Joseph

(Source: Catholic Prayers by Thomas A. Nelson)

Remember, O most illustrious Patriarch St Joseph, on the testimony of St Teresa, thy devoted client, never has it been heard that anyone who invoked thy protection or sought thy mediation has not obtained relief. In this confidence I come before thee, my loving protector, chaste spouse of Mary, foster-father of the Saviour of men and dispenser of the treasures of His Sacred Heart. Despise not my earnest prayer, but graciously hear and obtain my petition. (Here mention your request)

Let Us Pray – O God, Who by Thine ineffable Providence did vouchsafe to chose Blessed Joseph to be the spouse of Thy most holy Mother, grant, we beseech Thee, that he whom we venerate as our protector on earth may be our intercessor in Heaven, Who lives and reigns forever and ever. Amen.

St Joseph, Patron of a Happy Death, pray for us.

Morning Offering

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer Thee all my prayers, works, joys and sufferings of this day for all the intentions of Thy Sacred Heart, in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass through-out the world, in reparation for all my sins, for the intentions of all our associates, and in particular for the special intentions of our Holy Father for this month. Amen.

A Prayer for Priests

O Jesus, Eternal Priest, keep all Thy priests within the shelter of Thy Sacred Heart, where none may harm them. Keep unstained their anointed hands, which daily touch Thy Sacred Body. Keep unsullied their lips purpled with Thy Precious Blood. Keep pure and unearthly their hearts sealed with the sublime marks of Thy glorious priesthood. Let Thy holy love surround them and shield them from the world's contagion. Bless their labors with abundant fruit and may the souls to whom they have ministered here below be their joy and consolation and in Heaven their beautiful and everlasting crown. Amen.

O Mary – Queen of the clergy, pray for us, and obtain for us a number of holy priests.

Chaplet of Divine Mercy

Optional Opening Prayers

You expired, Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls, and the ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world. O Fount of Life, unfathomable Divine Mercy, envelop the whole world and empty Yourself out upon us.

O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a fountain of Mercy for us, I trust in You!

Begin with the Our Father, the Hail Mary and the Apostle's Creed:

Then, on the large bead before each decade:

Eternal Father,
I offer you the Body and Blood,
Soul and Divinity,
of Your Dearly Beloved Son,
Our Lord, Jesus Christ,
in atonement for our sins
and those of the whole world.

On the ten small beads of each decade, say:

For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

Conclude with (Say 3 Times):

Holy God,
Holy Mighty One,
Holy Immortal One,
have mercy on us
and on the whole world.

Optional Closing Prayer

Eternal God, in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy itself.

Psalm 91 (NRSVCE)

Assurance of God's Protection

- ¹ You who live in the shelter of the Most High, who abide in the shadow of the Almighty,^[a]
- ² will say to the LORD, "My refuge and my fortress;
my God, in whom I trust."
- ³ For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the deadly pestilence;
- ⁴ he will cover you with his pinions,
and under his wings you will find refuge;
his faithfulness is a shield and buckler.
- ⁵ You will not fear the terror of the night,
or the arrow that flies by day,
- ⁶ or the pestilence that stalks in darkness,
or the destruction that wastes at noonday.
- ⁷ A thousand may fall at your side,
ten thousand at your right hand,
but it will not come near you.
- ⁸ You will only look with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked.
- ⁹ Because you have made the LORD your refuge,^[b]
the Most High your dwelling place,
- ¹⁰ no evil shall befall you,
no scourge come near your tent.
- ¹¹ For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.
- ¹² On their hands they will bear you up,
so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.
- ¹³ You will tread on the lion and the adder,
the young lion and the serpent you will trample under foot.
- ¹⁴ Those who love me, I will deliver;
I will protect those who know my name.
- ¹⁵ When they call to me, I will answer them;
I will be with them in trouble,
I will rescue them and honor them.
- ¹⁶ With long life I will satisfy them,
and show them my salvation.

From Rev. Fr. Chad Ripperger's book Deliverance Prayers: For use by the Laity, 2016

Prayer for Protection against Curses, Harm, and Accidents

Lord Jesus, I ask Thee to protect my family from sickness, from all harm and from accidents. If any of us has been subjected to any curses, hexes, or spells, I beg Thee to declare these curses, hexes, or spells null and void. If any evil spirits have been sent against us, I ask Christ to decommission you and I ask that you be sent to the foot of His Cross to be dealt with as He will. Then, Lord, I ask Thee to send Thy holy Angels to guard and protect all of us.

Sealing Prayer of Protection

I ask Jesus to seal me in His most Precious Blood against any and all incursions of the evil one, in particular against any clinging, familial, familiar or retaliating spirits, in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Prayer of Command

In His Name and by the power of His Cross and Blood, I ask Jesus to bind any evil spirits, forces and powers of the earth, air, fire, or water, of the netherworld and the satanic forces of nature. By the power of the Holy Spirit and by His authority, I ask Jesus Christ to break any curses, hexes or spells and send them back to where they came from, if it be His Holy Will. I beseech Thee Lord Jesus to protect us by pouring Thy Precious Blood on us (my family etc.), which Thou hast shed for us and I ask Thee to command that any departing spirits leave quietly, without disturbance, and go straight to Thy Cross to dispose of as Thou sees fit. I ask Thee to bind any demonic interaction, interplay or communications. I place N. (person, place or thing) under the protection of the Blood of Jesus Christ which He shed for us. Amen.

Prayer Against Every Evil

Almighty God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, Most Holy Trinity, Immaculate Virgin Mary, Angels, Archangels, and Saints of heaven, descend upon me. Please purify me, Lord, mold me, fill me with Thyself, and use me. Banish all the forces of evil from me, destroy them, vanquish them, so that I do Thy Holy Will. Banish from me all spells, witchcraft, black magic, malefice, ties, maledictions, and the evil eye; diabolic infestations, oppressions, possessions; all that is evil and sinful; jealousy; perfidy, envy; physical, psychological, moral, spiritual, diabolical ailments. Cast into hell all demons working these evil, that they may never again touch me or any other creature in the entire world. I command and bid all the powers who molest me, by the power of God Almighty, in the Name of Jesus Christ our Savior, through the intercession of the Immaculate Virgin Mary, to leave me forever, and to be consigned into the everlasting hell.
